

MAMMOUTH DISSOLUTION SALE

Of the F. E. Cutts & Company's Clothing Store

The most sensational selling event of the year. Come with this mammoth sale at Barre's fastest growing clothing, furnishing and shoe store.

The reason for this sale must be known to you all. The firm of F. E. Cutts & Co. have dissolved partnership, which causes an absolute necessity for closing out this entire, up-to-date stock at once, regardless of cost or value. Stock amounting to upwards of $22,500.00 to be sacrificed during this great dissolution sale for about $14,500.00.

This sale includes every article in the store! Nothing reserved! Everything must go. This sale is at once recognized as Barre's greatest genuine clothing sale in years. You are well aware of the high-class merchandise carried at this up-to-date, live store. Only the most reliable, nationally advertised brands of clothing, furnishings and shoes are sold here at lowest possible prices, and this sale offers you the greatest opportunity of buying these well-known qualities at about two-thirds regular prices.

It will pay you to come from many miles to participate in this genuine sale event, that offers you reductions that are big, broad and visible.

MONTPELIER

No New Concrete Walks This Season Because of Lack of Funds.

Miss Rose Pearl Cohen and Israel Cohen were married last evening on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cohen, by Rabbi H. Sacks of Burlington. The bride was attended by four bridesmaids, her sister, Miss Nellie Cohen, and three cousins, Miss Eda Gotler, Sarah Cohen and Lizzie Cohen; and the groom by Isaac Cohen, Louis Cohen, David Feltz and Perley Cohen. Two sisters of the bride, Misses Gertrude and Dora Cohen, were flower girls. Miss Cohen has always resided here and Mr. Cohen for the past nine years. He is a blacksmith by trade. Refreshments were served previous to the ceremony and a chicken dinner followed the service.

A still alarm about noon yesterday called part of the fire department to the home of Lewis Wood, where a brick fire had started in the basement, started in a box of papers to which a young girl had touched a match. The damage was small and the blaze was extinguished with a garden hose.

There was a special meeting of the city council last evening, when it was decided to give up all idea of building new concrete walks this season. It has been the mind of the aldermen and mayor to expend several thousand dollars on new walks, but when the voters at the city meeting would not grant an additional tax, it put a quietus on the idea, and as now decided upon, $1,000 will be used for repairing the present concrete walks and there the movement will have to stop. A survey of Northfield street has been ordered in order that it may be straightened.

Emerald C. Glidden, eastern representative of the Colton Manufacturing company, and Miss Glenn Jackley of Oskaloosa, Iowa, were married at the latter place the first of the week. They will reside in Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Glidden graduated from Montpelier seminary, and is well known here.

ORANGE.

Erwin Aiken, a graduate of the Cacy school of motoring, has accepted a position as chauffeur for W. G. Nye of North Montpelier, his duties to begin next week.
